

Prince Newton Ifezue

Prince hails from Anambra State Nigeria, born in Sokoto State which is in the northern part of Nigeria and was raised in Lagos State Nigeria.

He is the first born out of 3 children and attended the Regional Maritime University which is a branch of (The World Maritime University Malmo Sweden) in Accra, Ghana where he bagged a Bachelor of Science degree in Port and Shipping Administration.

He owns a Transportation Company, his hobbies include: playing soccer, travelling and listening to good music.

He is the husband to Stacie Moore Ifezue, the visionary, CEO/Founder of the House of Transformation DBA (HOTministriesinc) and has the liberty of working alongside of his wife as the Executive Director of this ministry. “I support my wife with HOTinternational because I believe it is a platform for me to show my passion and love in changing and transforming of lives around the world; to help the world be a better place in my best and possible ways and also exude my traits of obedience in serving God. I pray to see the House of Transformation Ministries blossom and be a pinnacle of success that the world will look up to. I must say, I am grateful to be part of the team and pioneers of this ministry.”