Adaobi Joshua-ojunta is a passionate and dedicated follower of Christ, a loving wife, and mother of three. Born in Kwara state in the Western part of Nigeria, but hails from Anambra state. She is the second child out of three siblings.

Adaobi Joshua-ojunta attended Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, where she obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Mass/Media communication. She is a Certified Customer Support agent/Telemarketer and has worked with Airtel Nigeria and DML Lagos as a customer service agent.

In her personal life, Adaobi Joshua-ojunta has been actively involved in church ministry, serving as a Sunday school teacher, senior cell leader of Zoe cell, and head of the ushering department. She has also done over 30 outreaches to the poor and unsaved, sharing the love of Christ with those in need.

Adaobi Joshua-ojunta is passionate about winning souls for Christ and her personal goal is to decongest the kingdom of darkness by reaching out to the unsaved and backslidden with the pure, unfiltered truth of the Gospel of the kingdom of God. She believes that by sharing the love and truth of Christ with others, she can make a positive impact on the world and inspire others to do the same.

In her free time, Adaobi Joshua-ojunta enjoys praying, listening to gospel messages and spirit-filled songs, eating good food, and reading. Her watchword is "Do unto others what you want to be done to you," a guiding principle that inspires her to treat others with kindness, compassion, and respect.
