

Ronald J. Collins

Biography

Elder/Minister Free Indeed Church International

Houstonian native and proud resident from the Northeast community where I received educational development from HISD schools and professional licensing and certifications in real estate, insurance and auto industries. Currently assisting in ministry for personal development, people and community development along with outreach missions projects. Self-employed contractor in the trucking industry. Former Board member for Coverings, a fashion magazine marketing fashions to appeal to Christian and women of moral character in their presentations. Participant in Doxa University a 21 week mens ministry leadership training. Former Realtor and member HAR 2001-2004 selling residential real estate. Great passions for community development through property and land acquisition for kingdom assignments working together with Community Works, CDC. Twelve years broadcast TV cameraman and video production experiences, also skills and training in various manufacturing environments.

Ronald J. Collins

Biography