

Spokesperson

(HOTInternational)

Latreice is a native Houstonian. She was second born to her parents, into a warm and loving family, an experience that profoundly shaped her values and character. As a mother to one adult child (son) and a proud grandmother to one amazing granddaughter, she carries forward the legacy of love and support instilled in her from an early age. Latreice has an unwavering love for God, her family and her friends. Her dedication to her loved ones is matched by her strong passion for helping others. She holds a degree in psychology, which has equipped her with valuable insight into human behavior and a deep understanding. Latreice is also a board certified Christian Counselor through the National Association of Christian Counselors. She has a successful career in pharmaceutical clinical research, balancing her professional responsibilities with her unwavering commitment to her family. She actively engages in community services, using her knowledge and compassion to make a positive impact on the lives of others.