

LaWanda Kemp is a Business Analyst at Travelers Casualty and Surety and has been in the Insurance industry for 36 years where she has worked in various capacities and roles and has obtained certifications, licensing, awards and has been recognized as employee of the year on numerous occasions as well as recognized for her leadership skills. She is a great team player, work well with others and she is always willing to bring a great winning spirit, accountability, determination and dedication to any task.

Her hobbies include gardening, exercising, reading, enjoying all genres of music, concerts, theatrical performances and productions, enjoying family time. She enjoys attending church and has participated and has held various positions in various ministries: Vice President of the Deacons and Minister Wives; Vice President of the Greeters; Intermediate/Juniors Sunday School Teacher; Vacation Bible School Teacher; Pastor Aide Committee - Chairperson and Co-Chair; Announcement Clerk.

She has been happily married for 29 years to Norman Kemp and have 1 son - Darryl Adams II.